

This week the Archbishops announced we would be a different sort of church during #coronavirus.

On Sundays, as congregations across the country find new ways of sharing worship together after public church services were put on hold, join a Church of England service with the Archbishop of Canterbury on BBC Radio 4, local BBC radio stations at 8am and on C of E Facebook page at 9am.

Radio Gloucester.....Richard Atkins.....from 6am

A virtual church service at 8am radio led initially by the Archbishop of Canterbury

